GENERAL INFORMATION FOR EXAMS

- Exams count 20% of a student's semester grade. If a class is a semester class, then failure to take the exam will result in the failure of the class.
- Students are not required to report to school until their first exam and may leave at the conclusion of each exam period.
- Students are not permitted to be in the school halls or parking lot between exams and are not to enter the school any earlier than 10 minutes prior to their next scheduled exam.
- Students who arrive early for an exam must enter the building by the Activities Office and report to Study Hall.
- Students who are taking an exam must stay the entire scheduled time of the exam.
- The high school study hall (Room 308) will be available each period for any student wanting to utilize it. It will also be available for those needing to wait for school transportation.
- Students who arrive late must report to the Activities Office to sign in. Only those students who follow this procedure may be granted the opportunity to take the exam after an exam period has started.
- In order to be eligible to make up an exam, a student's absence MUST BE EXCUSED.
- Cancellation of any school days PRIOR to exam days will NOT affect the exam schedule. Please plan accordingly if inclement weather is anticipated leading up to the scheduled exam days.
- In the event of a school cancellation on a scheduled exam day, the exams for that day will be re-scheduled for the next day school is in session.
  - If school is ONLY canceled on Thursday, January 11, Day One of exams will move to Friday, January 12 (Regular exam schedule) and Day Two will move to Tuesday, January 16 (Scheduled two-hour delay)
  - If school is ONLY canceled on Friday, January 12, Day Two of exams will move to Tuesday, January 16 (Scheduled two-hour delay)
  - If school is canceled BOTH exam days, the exams will be given on the first two days that school is in session.
  - Please monitor any Bulldog Alerts and the school's website for adjustments to the exam schedule.
